VOLUNTEER HIGHLIGHT

JUSTINE PARKER

I am Justine. I have two daughters, Charlotte who is 5 and Carter who is 2.5. I have been volunteering here in 3CK since I started coming to 3Crosses so for a little over a year now.

I started serving because Carter had a hard time with strangers and wouldn't stay in her class on Sundays if I wasn't there with her. You can usually find me in the classes with the 2's and younger classes even when my daughters aren't with me.

The thing I love most about volunteering is all the people I have met and the genuine friendships I have built with the staff and other parents. My girls have made awesome friends with some of these people and I have made life long friendships from the people I've met.

I am so thankful for a place my daughters can feel comfortable with friends and learn about Jesus.

KID'S CORNER THANKSGIVING!

Happy Thanksgiving! We are so thankful for our 3CK kids and families. Here are some Thanksgiving questions we asked the kids PreK-5th Grade.

If you had to pick only one food to eat for the rest of your life, what would it be?

- Udon
- Mac N Cheese

- Apples, so you don't have to brush your teeth
- I can't pick one, but the only thing I like is doughnuts
- Pizza
- Cereal
- Chicken nuggets
- Soup
- In-N-Out
- Chick-Fil-A
- Candy

Who would you invite to your Thanksgiving dinner?

- Everyone I know!

- My church leaders
- Jesus

If you could thank your parents for something, what would it be?

- For taking care of me
- For being alive
- For baking me cookies
- For birthing me
- For giving me shelter
- For 3 tvs
- For their love
- For cleaning my room for me
- For making me food every day
