Following Jesus

Dear Friend,

Thank you for picking up this series entitled, "Following Jesus."

Ever since I first read the account, I have tried to imagine what it must have been like when Jesus came near the Sea of Galilee, walked up to his first disciples and said, "Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Mark 1:17

What an amazing moment in history. Jesus extended the ultimate invitation and Peter, James, John and Andrew dropped their nets and followed Jesus. Jesus extended to Matthew the same invitation while Matthew was sitting in his tax collector's booth. Jesus said, "Follow me." Matthew got up and followed Jesus.

If you are reading this, I believe it's because you either consider yourself to be a follower of Jesus or you are interested in becoming one or maybe you have genuine questions about what it means to follow Jesus. Wherever you might be, I believe Jesus knows all about you, and I believe Jesus will reveal himself to you in a powerful way through this series.

Did you know there are 34 accounts in the New Testament where Jesus has discussions with various individuals or groups of people about what it means to follow him? This is not a minor issue. Following Jesus is a major topic that Jesus wants us to understand.

As I've studied these 34 accounts it seems there are five truths Jesus wants us to understand about following him. In other words, when you add up everything Jesus said and taught about following him, five facts rise to the surface that Jesus wants us to know, if we really want to follow him.

Let me prepare you. What Jesus taught about following him was radical. It was radical then and it is radical today. If you claim to be a follower of Jesus, you are making one of the most radical statements you will ever make. I seriously wonder if most who claim to be followers of Jesus really understand from Jesus' words what such a claim implies?

This series has challenged me and it has changed me and it continues to challenge and change me as I apply the truths Jesus wants me to know about following him.

Whether you will be watching and listening to this material for personal edification or in a small group setting, I would recommend incorporating the following:

1. Read/discuss the introductory questions and pray before you watch.
2. Watch the series in the order in which it is presented.
3. Take notes as you go along on what most impacts your life. You will also want to fill in the blanks. Answers to all fill in the blanks are located at the end of the study.
4. Discuss the various discussion questions that are designed to help you understand the teaching. This study features questions before, during and after the teaching. To discuss questions during Mark's teaching simply hit "pause."
5. Read the book, "Not A Fan" by Kyle Idleman as a companion to this series. Idleman's book is one of the best books I've read on the theme of "Following Jesus." Read the assigned chapters after you watch a particular session. The assigned reading is listed at the end of each study session in the workbook.

It's my prayer that this teaching series will encourage you, equip you, inspire you and motivate you to follow Jesus.

Welcome to Following Jesus —Five Truths Jesus Wants You To Know.

Did You Get the Invitation?

Discuss before watching

What is the greatest _____ you ever received?

Watch Part 1 of "Following Jesus"

Fact #1 Following Jesus is the _____ invitation you will ever receive!

Mark 1:9-18

_____ is the invitation to follow Jesus the greatest invitation you will ever receive?

1. It's from _____.

"As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee...Come, follow me."

Mark 1:16-17a

"I know men and I tell you that Jesus Christ is no mere man. Between Him and every other person in the world there is no possible term of comparison. Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne, and myself founded empires; but what foundation did we rest the creations of our genius? Upon force. Jesus Christ founded an empire upon love; and at this hour millions of men would die for Him." Napoleon

“I am an historian, I am not a believer, but I must confess as a historian that this penniless preacher from Nazareth is irrevocably the very center of history. Jesus Christ is easily the most dominant figure in all history.” H.G. Wells

“I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” John 14:6

“I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.”
John 10:10

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest.” Matthew 11:28

“A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic – on a level with the man who says he is a poached egg – or else he would be the devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God; or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool, you can spit at Him and kill him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to.” C.S. Lewis

“He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things.”

Colossians 1:15-20

2. It's _____.

“As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. Come follow me...” Mark 1:16-17a

“Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to him, and he began to teach them. As he walked along, he saw Levi Son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector’s booth. Follow me, Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.” Mark 2:13-14

“I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.”
Ephesians 4:1

3. It's _____.

“Come, follow me...” Mark 1:17a

“If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.” Luke 9:23

“The Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees His Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does.”

John 5:19-20

4. It's _____.

“Come, follow me, and I will make you...” Mark 1:17a

“For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son.” Romans 8:29

5. It leads to an amazing _____.

“At once they left their nets and followed him.” Mark 1:18

“This is how life is supposed to be, it's an adventure, a journey, a trek filled with uncertainty, excitement and risk. In all of us there is a voice crying out, “I want to live!” Sometimes this yearning has been neglected or even rejected. The longing to be alive is drowned by lesser ambitions. We just want to make it through the day to survive, make ends meet, go through the routine, and then exist rather than live. If you have conceded to this lesser form of humanity, let me invite you to hear the roar inside your own soul, if you would dare to risk it, declare without shame, “I want to live!”
Erwin McManus

“They went...” Mark 1:21-43
